2000 Rock Art Science. The scientific study of paleoart. 219 p. BREPOLIS – IFRAO.

Turnhout, Bélgica. ISBN 2-503-99124-6. (Una de las más importantes publicaciones sobre arte rupestre de los últimos años. Trata los siguientes temas: Ciencia del arte rupestre – una introducción. El estudio del arte rupestre en una perspectiva histórica. La discriminación de marcas naturales y artificiales en rocas. La tecnología del arte rupestre. La documentación del arte rupestre. La conservación del arte rupestre. La datación del arte rupestre. La interpretación del arte rupestre. Algunos métodos de la ciencia de arte rupestre. Paleoarte portátil. Fuentes en la investigación del arte rupestre: organizaciones, el Código de Ética de IFRAO, revistas. Además, cuenta con un glosario e índice. Este libro no es una lectura fácil, pero debería ser lectura imprescindible para los estudiantes de la materia. Cuestiona muchas prácticas en la investigación y trata de establecer un rigor científico en el estudio del arte rupestre.)
